University Housing

Inclusiveness Statement:

University Housing staff value the multitude of different voices, opinions, experiences, and identities of the Illinois community. We respect and honor each member of the communities in which we work and live, inclusive of all aspects of individual and group identity and experience. Our commitment is woven into each of our interactions, programs, and decisions.
In Residential Life, we commit ourselves individually and collectively to respecting and honoring each member of the communities in which we work and live, inclusive of all aspects of individual and group identity and experience.

We respect and honor individuals, inclusive of, but not limited to, their:

- age
- ability
- culture
- educational level
- ethnicity
- first language
- gender
- gender expression
- geographic origin
- learning style
- marital status
- parental status
- political affiliation
- race
- sexual orientation
- size
- religion
- socio-economic status
- veteran status

If this is not your experience while you are a member of this community, you can receive resources and support from:

- Your Resident Advisor, Multicultural Advocate and/or Program Advisor.
- Professional Staff (Resident Director, Area Coordinator, Program Director, Assistant Director and/or Associate Director)

Additional Resources can be found at:
inclusiveillinois.illinois.edu
odos.illinois.edu/tolerance