

Assistant Director for Social Justice and Leadership Education

Residential Life, University Housing, University of Illinois

Applications are now being accepted for the Assistant Director for Social Justice and Leadership Education position within University Housing at the University of Illinois.

The Assistant Director provides leadership and supervision for the Social Justice and Leadership Education (SJLE) team within Residential Life / University Housing. They are responsible for the creation, implementation, direction, evaluation, and administration of both formal and informal student involvement, leadership skill development, and social justice education programs in the residence halls using a residential curriculum model.

For additional details and full consideration create your candidate profile at <http://jobs.illinois.edu> and upload pdf versions of a cover letter of application, a resume, and the names, addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references by January 26, 2018. Screening interviews may begin before that date, but all applications received by that date will receive full consideration.

We encourage all applicants to learn more about the Department, Housing, the University of Illinois and the Urbana-Champaign community by visiting our candidate website: <http://www.housing.illinois.edu/Staff/Employment/>

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of a contingent offer.

The U of I is an EEO Employer/Vet/Disabled www.inclusiveillinois.illinois.edu.