

Associate Director of Housing for Residential Life
University Housing, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Applications are now being accepted for the Associate Director of Housing for Residential Life position for University Housing at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The Associate Director of Housing for Residential Life provides leadership and direction to the undergraduate residence halls experience serving approximately 9000 residents within 24 undergraduate residence halls which includes: program development, evaluation and assessment; living and learning communities; social justice and leadership education; conference services; community standards and safety programs; and the hiring, training, supervision and evaluation of staff. The Associate Director of Housing for Residential Life directly supervises Assistant Directors and is responsible for 56 full-time staff and over 1300 student staff and volunteers. The Associate Director of Housing for Residential Life reports directly to the Director of University Housing, is a member of the executive team and participates in departmental strategic planning initiatives.

To view the complete job announcement and for full consideration, create your candidate profile at <https://jobs.illinois.edu> and upload a cover letter, resume and contact information for three professional references by April 20, 2017. Interviews will take place on a rolling basis once the search opens, but no final decision will be made until after the closing date.

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of a contingent offer. The U of I is an EEO Employer/Vet/Disabled www.inclusiveillinois.illinois.edu.