

Event Types

The following event types are available for selection in EMS. When selecting an event type, please choose the type that most closely matches your event. University Housing is collecting this data for future usage.

Academic Courses - Are classes held in University Housing space that receive academic credit.

Campus Event - This event type refers to events booked by the campus community. Residents and staff of University Housing will not select this event type.

Housing Program - Events planned by para-professionals and University Housing staff.

Housing Staff Meeting - University Housing staff members who are holding a meeting will select this option.

Housing Student Organization - Any meeting, event or program for a Housing Student Organization will utilize this option.

Non-University Event - Any event that is not related to the University of Illinois or University Housing.

Resident Reserved Meeting - Residents will select this option for any meetings they are sponsoring.

RSO Event - Any event held by an RSO will select this.

Student Affairs Event - Any event held by the department of Student Affairs will select this option.